CENTRE FOR POLICY STUDIES

You will remember that after the 1979 General Election, the Centre for Policy Studies put together a book of selected speeches which you had made between 1975 and 1979 - "Let Our Children Grow Tall".

If they were to compile a similar book for the 1979-1983 years, it would need to be at your request. I mentioned this to Stephen Sherbourne who suggested that I write this note to you.

Is this something which you would like to be done?

I don't think so - I would like some time to choose and
