My dear Prime Minister,

I wanted to talk to you, but you have bitterness with you.
You have the heart of a lion, but even you must have been wounded by yesterday's and to-day's Press and by the betrayal of jealous and ambitious Cabinet colleagues, Edward de Corman and Bardsley Bank.

If you would like me to pop over from Ranelagh Street for a chat, get a message to me,

Meanwhile some of us know that

Ministry for Housing and Construction all strong and resolute leaders who have undertaken the massive task of setting their country on a new course towards national revival and a renewal of self confidence fore friend and unscrupulous opposition. Churchill and de Gaulle won through, and you follow with the same heroic qualities of guts and resolution and instinctive accord with the true feelings of the people.

God bless and how I wish that I was back at your side.

Yours
