I reply to Mr Brown.

Mr Alison

This is one of the many luncheon groups that exist in and around the hobby. I would be inclined to accept. You can put out quite a lot of useful information about Government policy, and also

MICHAEL ALISON

about the home
Minister, in, say, 90 mins.
It would be useful and sensible to establish that the occasion would be unattributable as well as informal.

Dear Mr. Alison,

I'm so glad you can accept the invitation to lunch with myself and two lobby colleagues, Catherine Evens of The Star, and David Davies of BBC, on Monday June 25. I have booked a table at The Grange, Covent Garden (Tel: 240 2939) for 1p.m. If there are any problems, perhaps your secretary could ring me at the Commons on 4700.

We look forward to meeting you.

Yours faithfully,

Colin Brown

Dear Mr. Alison,

Two colleagues in the lobby, Catherine Evans of the Star and David Davies of the BBC, and myself would very much like to invite you to lunch, if you have a spare date available.

Although we have worked in the Commons for some time (David is something of a new boy) we haven't had the opportunity to meet you and it would be rather nice to have an informal lunch together, if this is possible. Perhaps your office could let me know.

Yours faithfully,

Colin Brown
