Dear Mr. Brierley,

I want to thank you very much for your Chairmanship when I addressed the Conference. I very much appreciated your speech and the sentiments which you expressed.

My only regret is that Denis and I were unable to stay in Porthcawl to see you for a little longer after my speech. But I know that you understand the reasons for that.

My visit to the Conference in Porthcawl may have been short but it was a great pleasure for me and I remember with affection the warmth of my reception.

Yours sincerely
Margaret Thatcher

Dear Mr Vickers.

I am writing to thank you and your officers for all the help they provided during my visit to South Wales and Porthcawl last Saturday.

I know very well the particular difficulties you faced on this occasion and I know also the pressures upon upon force in general. I therefore wanted to record my gratitude to everybody concerned for all that they did. Denis and I greatly appreciated it.

Yours sincerely
Margaret Thatcher

Dear Alastair,

I was delighted to see you at Porthcawl last Saturday but was sorry that we were not able to have a chance to talk.

As you may know it was decided that we should leave the Pavilion and return to the airport straight away rather than stay a little longer to meet old friends like yourself. It was a great pity but I know you will appreciate the reasons for that.

But I feel I had to write to express my regrets and send you and Diana every good wish.

Yours sincerely
Margaret
