PRIME MINISTER'S

PERSONAL MESSAGE

SERIAL No. T 203/84.

My dear President,

I should like to thank you most warmly for the excellent atmosphere in which our talks were held on 29 and 30 November and for the very generous hospitality which you accorded me and my delegation. I found our discussions the most stimulating and rewarding of the many talks which we have had, and really feel that they mark a new phase of understanding between Britain and France.

I should be grateful if my particular thanks could be extended to those responsible for the admirable arrangements, including the security arrangements, made for my visit.

I send you and Madame Mitterrand my best wishes.

Yours sincerely
Margaret Thatcher

His Excellency Monsieur Francois Mitterrand
